KENDALL GOLIGHTLY

Like many hunters, we are drawn to the challenge of hunting a mature whitetail. Everything from obtaining hunting permission, patterning a mature buck, and utilizing a renewable source of clean protein is part of our passion for hunting in this unique environment. Our greatest purpose is to build a platform to share our faith with the hunting community. God calls everyone, no matter how much influence they have, to use their platform to glorify God and to spread His Word. Through Seek One, we are hoping to lead by example and bring more outdoorsmen and women to know and love Christ.

Seek One will be at Booth 88

Come see us at Booth 523!

Buck Chasers was established in 2011. We have over 8000 acres in Pike, Brown, and Adams counties. The company was started to offer some of the best hunting in the world at a very affordable price. We have several food plots scattered all over the land and run over 200 trail cams just to learn the deer patterns and behaviors. Our whole goal at Buck Chasers is to make you feel like family not a client. We want all our hunters to come back year after year and feel like they are part of us not just another client.

TYLER JORDAN

Tyler will be at Booth # 91

Tyler Jordan is a show host for the digital series Realtree Road Trips which is available on the Realtree 365 app and YouTube. He also is the VP of Strategic Relationships at Realtree, managing the brand of the world's most advanced camouflage patterns through public relations.

Realtree Road Trips - This series will follow the near live format so get ready for a wild ride as the rowdy Realtree Road Trips crew travel down North America's dirt roads, highways and byways taking whitetail, elk, turkey, and waterfowl Realtree style. David "Barney" Mitchell, The One Bullet Deputy David "Barney" Mitchell, The One Bullet Deputy, has been a long-time fan of the Andy Griffith Show. He began receiving comments on how much he favored Barney Fife both in his appearance and his mannerisms. David began studying the life and character of Mayberry's one bullet deputy.

In 2002, he launched his career as a Barney Fife impersonator. Since that time, he has entertained thousands of people in many different venues such as The World Deer Expo, the World of Wheels, the Alabama State Fair, concert halls, charity events, on cruise ships, as well as festivals all over the Southeast. He has also done several radio and television appearances.

Wherever David performs he brings with him all the passion and charisma it takes to portray Mayberry's most beloved character, Barney Fife. Gene Stallings hit the nail on the head when he commented, "Hey, you're right out of Mayberry!"

Barney will be outside of the entrance doors to the expo, to entertain and inform the attendees as they wait for the doors to open. Be on the lookout for The One Bullet Deputy, in the front lobby of the World Deer Expo.
